

PASTOR PONDERABLES - February 2024

But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things." Mark 8:33

"On the second Sunday in Lent, Jesus' message to Peter invites each of us to repent of our preconceived notions of who Jesus is and to accept who he actually is, so that we might live according to Christ's mission rather than the mission we have assigned to Christ. Repentance here means allowing our preferred future to die so that a new life in Christ might live in us.

Peter has a vision for what Jesus should be in this world, but he is going in the wrong direction, moving counter to Jesus. Jesus tells Peter to get behind him and follow. I guess Peter's vision of the future didn't include Jesus dying. But Jesus was sent to reveal to us the power of God to bring us to eternal life, that is life even after death.

24 Very truly I tell you, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds. John 12:24. Here in John, Jesus goes on to say those who love their life will lose it. That sounds hard to me, but Jesus is inviting us to let go of our notions and emotions so that new life can grow, to live a baptismal or Easter life of death and resurrection. For any congregation looking for renewal, this appeal to let go in order for a new future to bloom is essential.

One of the interesting points in this text from Mark, is that when Jesus rebukes Peter, Jesus is "turned toward and looking at the disciples." What Jesus says to Peter is a message to all disciples in every place and time. Lenten disciplines – prayer, fasting and almsgiving – are meant to help us let go and embrace a future life in Christ with God. I would ask all members to meditate during Lent, in preparation of a new pastor, on what you need to let go of, in order for you to find new life in the congregation.

The Lenten journey of 40 days is not taken alone. We do it as a community. I was impressed in Senegal by how during Lent, everyone would greet each other asking how their Lent was going. Perhaps we can do that, too.

Again this year, we will have special services throughout Lent with our shared ministry partner -Brickerville United Lutheran Church. The Ash Wednesday service a Brickerville will be led by Pastor Glenn Beard and there will be the Imposition of Ashes. Then every Wednesday following, we will we will alternate between the two church buildings for reflections on Lutheran identity and our understanding of the unity of Christ's church. We will have guest speakers from around the world including Franklin Ishida, Chandran Martin, Stephen Deal and Willie and Anne Langdi. During Holy Week, we will observe Maundy Thursday at Jerusalem and Good Friday at Brickerville. See the Schedule below.

I hope all will attend these evening events during Lent. This is an opportunity for people who can't easily come to church on Sunday mornings. And it is an opportunity to strengthen the shared ministry between Brickerville and Rothsville. And of course, it is a spiritual journey, challenging and fulfilling.

Pastor Dietrich

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

Roger L. Kurtz

During the month of February, the Time after Epiphany draws to a close and the Season of Lent begins on Ash Wednesday (2/14). As we observe the Last Sunday after Epiphany/Transfiguration of Our Lord on February 11, our Jerusalem Choir will sing a musical setting by Robert G. Farrell (b. 1945) of “Beautiful Savior” – a hymn text found on page 838 of Evangelical Lutheran Worship. Farrell graduated from Carnegie Mellon University and taught for 30 years at East Allegheny School District, where he spent a majority of his career as the high school choral director. He has composed church music for over 50 years and is currently composer-in-residence at St. Paul’s Roman Catholic Cathedral in Pittsburgh. Organ voluntaries that day will include the tone poem “Vision” by Joseph Rheinberger (1839-1901) and a chorale improvisation by Paul Manz (1919-2009) on “Deo Gracias,” the tune to which the Hymn of the Day (“Oh, Wondrous Image, Vision Fair” – ELW #316) is sung. The final hymn that Sunday (“Alleluia, Song of Gladness” – ELW #318) will provide an opportunity to sing our last “Alleluias” before Lent begins three days later on Ash Wednesday. This particular hymn text is a translation of an 11th-century Latin hymn used during ceremonial rites to bury the “Alleluia.” The liturgy of the medieval church forbade the use of the word “Alleluia” (the Hebrew expression for the phrase “Praise the Lord”) during Lent, a tradition continued to this day in liturgical churches.

Throughout our 40-day Lenten journey, the musical part of our Sunday liturgies will take on a more somber tone to aid us in our spiritual self-examination and contemplation. In addition to the word “Alleluia” being absent from all hymns and chants, the “Gloria in Excelsis” is omitted and in its place the “Kyrie” is sung. As in years past, the more solemn plainsong setting of the service music (Setting Five) will once again be used. Anthems offered by our choir on the first two Sundays in Lent will include “Forty Days and Forty Nights” by Harrison Oxley (1933-2009) and “Lenten Prayer,” an arrangement by Patrick M. Liebergen (b. 1949) of music originally written by the Italian composer Giovanni Battista Pergolesi (1710-1736).

Mark your calendars now for the program of choral music The Lancaster Chamber Singers will present in our nave on Sunday, March 10, at 3:00 p.m. The event is offered as part of our 2023-2024 Music at Jerusalem Concert Series. Directed by Jay W. Risser, the group has played a major role in quality performances of choral masterpieces in central Pennsylvania since the ensemble’s founding in 1978. Consisting of 35 to 40 auditioned vocalists, the group performs primarily in Lancaster County and its immediate surroundings, and has also appeared at venues such as the National Cathedral in Washington, D.C., Longwood Gardens, and Bruton Parish Church in Colonial Williamsburg, Virginia, where they presented a concert to help celebrate the 400th anniversary of the founding of Jamestown. Details regarding the works they will be singing on March 10th will appear in next month’s newsletter. Additional information about the ensemble, including video recordings, can be found on their website: lancasterchambersingers.org.

Jerusalem Mutual Ministry Committee Meeting Minutes

December 5, 2023

Present: Pastor Dietrich, Joyce Burkholder, Dave Carson, & Brad Clubb

1. Jerusalem does not have formal guidelines stating the purpose and responsibilities of the Mutual Ministry Committee.
2. We do have a Constitution and Continuing Resolutions for Jerusalem.
3. Jerusalem does not have formal By-laws.
4. The last formal update of Jerusalem's Constitution was completed in 2017. The synod provides the congregations with updates. We need to ensure that any updates since 2017 have been added to our Constitution. It was agreed that the Mutual Ministry Committee will update the Constitution prior to the next Pastor's call begins.
5. Pastor Dietrich discussed the Committee's roles in hiring church staff members and conducting staff reviews including compensation. It was noted that the role of the committee in these areas has varied depending on the pastor at a given time. Pastor provided a template for Annual Review and Assessment for Staff Positions that he received when involved with Global Missions. The committee plans to use the template to conduct staff reviews in the spring.
6. The committee reviewed Position Descriptions for Jerusalem's Office Administrator and Church Treasurer. These documents may need some updates.
7. The Mutual Ministry Committee may have a few more tasks to complete after the next Pastor is called.

Meeting to discuss the future of the existing candelabras.

Memorial committee members were invited to attend.

Present: Chrystine Anderson, Andy Anderson, Pastor Dietrich, Brenda Fetter, Zach Fetter, Roger Kurtz, Claude Grube

Problem: Candles in candelabras do not stay lit and or do not light at all.

CM Almy was contacted and obtained prices for new candelabras and oil filled candles. Prices for 2 new candelabras ranged from $2988 to $3114. 14 oil filled candles cost $1000.

Sudbury Candelabra $719- only uses wax candles.

Repair current candelabras?

Discussion took place. Can money be used from Memorial Fund?

It was decided, for now, to repair current candelabras and Mike Fetter volunteered to do this.

Respectfully submitted

Dear Congregation,

Thank you very much for the many Christmas cards and kind words, and generous gift during as we celebrated our Christ's birth. Your thoughtfulness has been very encouraging. We are four months into our work together, and I look forward to completing our goal in the new year of calling a shared pastor for the two congregations. Please feel free to call me for any reason, even just to talk!

My number is 717-507-3157.
